

Year 10 RSE Day

What is consent?

Why did they choose 16 as the legal age for being capable of giving consent?

Persuasion:

Manipulation:

Coercion:

Do you think that soaps should include story lines on issues such as domestic violence and abuse? How could the Hollyoake's plot line help someone in a similar place?

Write one thing that people are supposed to learn from each clip:

Sam & Alice:

Ryan & Jade:

Liam and Beth:

Advert:

There were complaints to the BBC that Whitney's storyline was not for family viewing. What do you think?

Rape on Trial. You are going to watch a video of two young people at a party. Your job is to decide if you have witnessed a rape or not.

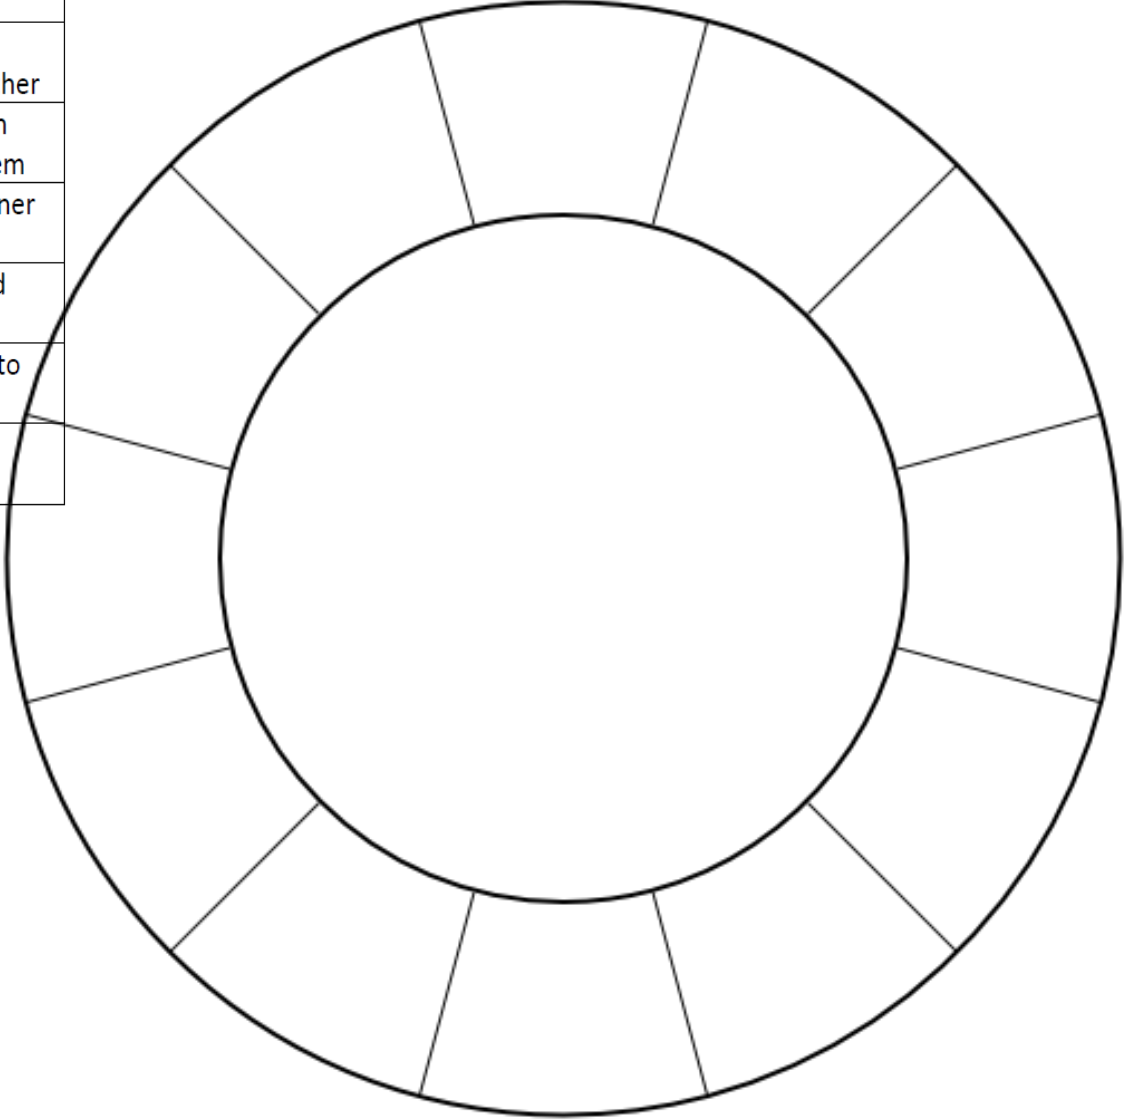

What is your opinion after seeing the clip?

Discuss your view with others. Do you still hold the same view after discussion?

Do you think the cup of tea clip is a good way to represent consent in a way that everyone can understand? Why?

1. Make decisions about things together rather than one person taking charge	2. Telling lies about where you have been or who you have been with
3. Accepting alcohol or gifts from a new partner	4. Feeling jealous if your partner talks to someone else
5. Going out with someone older than yourself	6. Spending time doing things with friends and family away from each other
7. Feeling confident to end a relationship if you want to	8. Not seeing your best mate as much because your partner doesn't like them
9. Feeling comfortable to ask your partner to use a condom	10. Feeling not as 'good' as your partner
11. Texting all the time as you can't bear to be apart	12. Respecting sexual boundaries and the right to say 'no'
13. Needing to know where your partner is all the time	14. Constantly needing your partner to tell you they love you
15. Having sex even when you don't want to	16. Feeling equal in the relationship

What do you expect from your partner?

How would he or she demonstrate these characteristics?

Use the healthy relationship examples on the power point to create your own. Put key words on the inside circle, and add how this would be demonstrated on the outside areas.
