Dear Parent/Carer

Operation Encompass

Newcastle City Council and Northumbria Police set up a project called 'Operation Encompass' in which all Newcastle schools and the City Council are involved. It started in November 2016 with the focus of supporting children who are affected by domestic abuse.

Following any domestic abuse incident being reported to Northumbria Police, where children aged between 4 and 16 years old are present, witnessed or involved in the incident, the Police will send this information to Children's Services at Newcastle City Council, who will then notify the children's schools.

After such an incident, children often arrive at school distressed, upset and unprepared for the day. Operation Encompass will ensure that schools are made aware at the earliest possible opportunity and can subsequently provide support in a way that means the child feels safe.

Each school has a member of staff (key adult) who has received training on Operation Encompass and will ensure that necessary support is made available to the child. They can also liaise with the Police and Newcastle City Council, when required.

Our involvement in this project demonstrates our school's commitment to working in partnership, to safeguard and protect children, and to providing the best possible care and support for our pupils.

In the meantime, if you would like to speak to someone further about Operation Encompass or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me or Audrey Johnson at Newcastle City Council; audrey.johnson@newcastle.gov.uk.
